PART-TIME ACADEMIC POSITION IN PROJECT MANAGEMENT

(1/10 OF A FULL-TIME POSITION, FOR A TOTAL VOLUME OF 30 HOURS/YEARS)

FACULTY SOLVAY BRUSSELS SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

Reference: 2017/A016
Application deadline: 31 May 2017
Start date: 01/10/2017

Job description

The Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management (SBS-EM) is the Faculty of Business and Economics of the Université libre de Bruxelles, one of the leading research universities in continental Europe. The School prides itself for its programmes that combine scientific rigour, contextual engagement and problem-solving skills.

The School invites applications for a part-time position in Project Management.

GEST-S-551 Project Management is a 24-hour semi-compulsory course in the Master in Management Science. It seeks to provide students with both hard and soft project management skills, through greater theoretical understanding and practical application of the project management principles. The course should cover the main project management frameworks and tools and the determinants of project successes and failures.

The course is meant to be taught in the Fall. The expected number of students is around 100. The language of instruction is English. A teaching assistant will be available to support the instructor.

The format of the lectures is left at the discretion of the instructor (and are part of the application file). Teaching innovation and active learning methods are strongly encouraged. Available resources for instructors are presented at the following link: http://www.solvay.edu/bureau-dappui-p%C3%A9dagogique.

Courses covered at the time of recruitment:
GEST-S-551: Project Management – 5 ECTS – théorie: 24h – Q1 (taught in English)

Qualifications required

Preferably PhD Degree (with doctoral thesis) in Management.

Skills required

- English (C1)
- Applicants who do not speak French may be granted a period of adaptation, but they must be able to teach in French at the end of the third year following their appointment.
- Strong pedagogical skills, ease of teaching in front of large audiences
- Extensive experience with project management

Intended learning outcomes (ILOs) of the programs to which the course contribute can be obtained from Ms. Muriel Cogghe (Muriel.Cogghe@ulb.ac.be). For more information, please contact Prof. Marco Becht (marco.becht@ulb.ac.be).

Applications must be sent by e-mail to the rectorate of the Université Libre de Bruxelles (recteur@ulb.ac.be) and to the faculty deanship (Dean-Office-SBS-EM@ulb.ac.be).

They must include the following:

- an application letter
- a Curriculum vitae including a list of publications (a template can be downloaded at http://www.ulb.ac.be/tools/CV-type.rtf)
- a teaching project (max 4 pages) that contains:
  - A description of the candidate’s past teaching experience
  - A course proposal for GEST-S-551 including the course objectives, a course outline of the material to be covered, a description of the planned teaching method and student evaluation, the planned references from which the course will draw, and the way the course will contribute to the intended learning outcomes of the programs to which it belongs.
- the names and e-mail addresses of five references (with equal gender representation) who may be contacted by those in charge of evaluating applications. These references should not have conflicts of interest.

By sending in their application, applicants acknowledge they have read and understood the additional information and the regulations relevant to research staff, available at the following address http://www.ulb.ac.be/emploi/academique.html.
