PART-TIME ACADEMIC POSITION IN COMMON AGRICULTURAL POLICY

(1/20 OF A FULL-TIME POSITION, FOR A TOTAL VOLUME OF 15 HOURS - 30 HOURS/YEAR EVERY TWO YEARS)

FACULTY SOLVAY BRUSSELS SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

Reference: 2017/A012
Application deadline: 31 May 2017
Start date: 01/10/2017

Job description

The Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management (SBS-EM) is the Faculty of Business and Economics of the Université libre de Bruxelles, one of the leading research universities in continental Europe. The School prides itself for its programmes that combine scientific rigour, contextual engagement and problem-solving skills. The School invites applications for a part-time position in Common Agricultural Policy.

ECON-O-405 Common Agricultural Policy is a 24-hour optional course in the Master in Economic Analysis and European Policy, the Master in Business Economics and the Master in bioingénieur. It seeks to provide students with a thorough understanding of the underpinnings and history of European Agricultural Policy together with the policy changes it faces. Interactions with national and international policies should be discussed as well.

The course is meant to be taught in the Fall, once every other year, starting in the Fall 2017. The expected number of students is around 30. The language of instruction is English.

The format of the lectures is left at the discretion of the instructor (and are part of the application file). Teaching innovation and active learning methods are strongly encouraged. Available resources for instructors are presented at the following link: http://www.solvay.edu/bureau-dappui-p%C3%A9dagogique

Courses covered at the time of recruitment:

ECON-O-405: Common Agricultural Policy – 5 ECTS – théorie: 24h – Q1 (taught in English) – every 2 years

Qualifications required

The successful candidate should preferably hold a Ph.D. in economics.

Skills required

- Excellent command of English & French (C1)
- Strong knowledge of European institutions and European agricultural policy
• Ability to connect the facts and trends in the European agricultural and food sector to the underlying economic and political drivers
• Ability to connect the analysis of the European agricultural and food sector to economic frameworks and models seen by students in other courses
• Teaching experience

Interested?

Intended learning outcomes (ILOs) of the programs to which the course contributes can be obtained from Ms. Muriel Cogghe (Muriel.Cogghe@ulb.ac.be). For more information, please contact Prof. Estelle Cantillon, Associate Dean for Academic Programs (Estelle.cantillon@ulb.ac.be).

Applications must be sent by e-mail to the Rector of the Université Libre de Bruxelles (recteur@ulb.ac.be) and to the SBSEM Dean (Dean-Office-SBS-EM@ulb.ac.be).

They must include the following:
• an application letter
• a Curriculum vitae including a list of publications (a template can be downloaded at http://www.ulb.ac.be/tools/CV-type.rtf)
• a teaching project (max 4 pages) that contains:
  o A description of the candidate’s past teaching experience
  o A course proposal for ECON-O-405 including the course objectives, a course outline of the material to be covered, a description of the planned teaching method and student evaluation, the planned references from which the course will draw, and the way the course will contribute to the intended learning outcomes of the programs to which it belongs.
• the names and e-mail addresses of five references (with equal gender representation) who may be contacted by those in charge of evaluating applications. These references should not have conflicts of interest.

By sending their application, applicants acknowledge they have read and understood the additional information and the regulations relevant to academic staff, available at the following address http://www.ulb.ac.be/emploi/academique.html.
